IT IS THIS 14th day of December, 2007

ORDERED:

1. The MTA may produce in the course of discovery in this matter documents within its possession, custody or control relevant and material to the claims set forth in the Amended Complaint, in accordance with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, notwithstanding that such documents may be documents within the scope of New York Civil Rights Law § 50-a. Specifically, the MTA may produce "personnel records, used to evaluate performance toward continued employment or promotion" of current or former MTA Police Department members.

2. Documents to be produced pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Order may be designated "Confidential" or "For Expert Eyes / Attorney Inspection Only" information by the MTA, as the case may be, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Stipulated Order for the Protection and Exchange of Confidential Information entered by the Court in this action on November 30, 2007.
